INDEX
THE FREEMAN: IDEAS ON LIBERTY
VOLUME 54
JANUARY–DECEMBER 2004

Prepared by Beth A. Hoffman, Managing Editor, and Michael Tseng, FEE Intern

NOTE: In page references, the number preceding the colon designates the month, the numbers following refer to the pages. For example, 1/2:47–48 refers to pages 47–48 of the January/February issue. Articles have at least three entries—author, title, and subject—except in cases when the title and appropriate subject coincide. Books reviewed are listed alphabetically by author on page 48.

A

AGRICULTURE
  Ending farm subsidies wouldn't help the third world? It just ain't so! (Pasour) 4:6–7
  Facts about world hunger (Peron) 9:37–39
ALL poorer after the war (Hazlitt) 11:12
AMERICAN history
  How did we get here? (Williams) 3:47–48
  Rome and America: the ideology of decline (Jones) 5:29–33
  Westerns and property rights (Morriss) 3:19–22
  See also Davies; Edwards; Folsom; Higgs; Smith
ANDERSON, William L.
  A tale of regulation. 10:19–20
ANDERSON, William L. and Candice E. Jackson
  Losing the law: from shield to weapon. 5:20–23
ANDREWS, Lewis M.
  Separate the professions and the state. 12:16–20
ANTIGLOBALISTS are scarce in poor countries (Peron) 6:37–38
ARMENTANO, Paul. See Book reviews (Sullum)
ATTARIAN, John
  Is Social Security reform paternalistic? 1/2:10–12
AUSTRIAN economics
  Austrian economics and the political economy of freedom (Ebeling) 6:8–15
  Econ 101: an Austrian economist's dream (Foulkes) 1/2:8–9
AUTOGENIC diseases (Szasz) 5:24–25
AWESOME powers of government (Weidenbaum) 3:10–13
AYAU, Manuel F.
  The most elusive proposition. 10:25–27

B

BACK toward serfdom in New Zealand (Baird) 4:47–48
BAIRD, Charles W.
  Pursuit of happiness column:
  Back toward serfdom in New Zealand. 4:47–48
  Henry Hazlitt on unions. 11:47–48
  The public and the unions. 7/8:47–48
BARRY, Norman
  Estonia moves to liberty. 5:36–38
  The European constitution: a requiem? 10:32–36
BATEMARCO, Robert. See Book reviews (McMillan)
BERMUDA, freedom, and economic growth (Stewart) 6:18–21
BIERCE, Ambrose, on socialism (Hager) 12:21–23
"BIG" we really need to beware (Dunn) 7/8:23–24
BIOGRAPHY, tribute
  Ambrose Bierce on socialism (Hager) 12:21–23
  Aaron Director on the market for goods and ideas (Ebeling) 11:2–3
  Lasting legacy of the Reagan revolution (Ebeling) 7/8:6–7
  A man to remember (Davies) 12:29–30
  Nock revisited (Richman) 6:4–5
  Remembering Henry Hazlitt (Greaves) 11:8–11
  Herbert Spencer: libertarian prophet (Long) 7/8:25–28
BLANCHETTE, Jude
  Education is the effect, not the cause, of affluence. 7/8:31–34
  Hazlitt on gold. 11:34–36
BLOGS, new world of (Cowen) 3:16–18
BORDERS and liberty (Morriss) 7/8:17–20
BOUDREAUX
  Thoughts on freedom column:
  Can you spot the billionaire? 1/2:13–14
  A deficit of understanding. 4:16–17
  A deficit of understanding II. 6:16–17
  Novel economics. 11:13–14
  Playing by the rules. 9:16–17
BOVARD, James
  Federal surveillance: the threat to Americans' security 1/2:22–27
BUSINESS
  "Big" we really need to beware (Dunn) 7/8:23–24
  Would the poor go barefoot with a private shoe industry? (Davies) 5:34–35
BUSINESS and ethics (Opitz) 1/2:37–40
BUSYBODY behind every tree (Payne) 7/8:8–9
BUYING foreign goods saves American jobs (Carreira) 6:22–23

C

CALIFORNIA
  How unions are bankrupting California (Greenhut) 9:28–31
CALLAHAN, Gene
  Free-trade theory no longer applies? It just ain't so! 5:6–7
Callahan, Gene, continued
  See also Book reviews (Caldwell; Mandelbaum)
CALLAHAN, Gene and Robert (Bob) Murphy
  Let us not speak falsely now. 3:28–32
  Nationalized health care will cut costs? It just ain't so! 1/2:6–7
CAMPAIGN-finance reform
  Politics corrupts money (Leef) 1/2:32–34
CAN you spot the billionaire? (Boudreaux) 1/2:13–14
CAPITAL letters 3:39–41; 5:39–40; 9:40–41; 12:31–33
CARREIRA, Robert
  Buying foreign goods saves American jobs. 6:22–23
  Regulatory escalation. 1/2:15–16
CARTOON depicting "The Broken Window" 11:24–25
CASHING a cheque in the third millennium A.D. (Wright) 4:8–9
CHINA
  China's future (Dorn) 10:47–48
  Great Chinese inflation (Ebeling) 12:2–3
CHOICE is bad for us? It just ain't so! (Otteson) 6:6–7
CLASS-action lawsuits: dear lawyer (Payne) 10:40
CLASSICAL liberalism
  Ramón Díaz and the spread of liberal ideas in Uruguay (Peirano) 10:37–40
  Free markets, the rule of law, and classical liberalism (Ebeling) 5:8–15
  Progressive era's derailment of classical-liberal evolution (Smith) 6:26–30
CLEVELAND, Grover: the veto president (Folsom) 4:34–35
COBDEN, Richard: a man to remember (Davies) 12:29–30
COLLECTIVIST paradox (Richman) 3:4–5
COMMUNISM
  The lessons of another Tolstoy (Hager) 1/2:17–19
  Museum you don't want to miss (Reed) 3:14–15
COPYRIGHTS, Mises on (Greaves) 6:33–36
CORDATO, Roy E.
  Corporations should pay higher taxes? It just ain't so! 11:6–7
COWEN, Tyler
  The new world of blogs. 3:16–18

D

DARK secrets of rail trails (Teska) 12:11–13
DAVIES, Stephen
  Our economic past column:
  From Pennsylvania to Verdun: Friedrich List and the origins of World War I. 1/2:30–31
  The great horse-manure crisis of 1894. 9:32–33
  A man to remember. 12:29–30
  Would the poor go barefoot with a private shoe industry? 5:34–35
DEAR lawyer (Payne) 10:40

INDEX
THE FREEMAN: IDEAS ON LIBERTY
VOLUME 54
JANUARY–DECEMBER 2004

Prepared by Beth A. Hoffman, Managing Editor, and Michael Tseng, FEE Intern

NOTE: In page references, the number preceding the colon designates the month, the numbers following refer to the pages. For example, 1/2:47–48 refers to pages 47–48 of the January/February issue. Articles have at least three entries—author, title, and subject—except in cases when the title and appropriate subject coincide. Books reviewed are listed alphabetically by author on page 48.

A

AGRICULTURE
  Ending farm subsidies wouldn't help the third world? It just ain't so! (Pasour) 4:6–7
  Facts about world hunger (Peron) 9:37–39
ALL poorer after the war (Hazlitt) 11:12
AMERICAN history
  How did we get here? (Williams) 3:47–48
  Rome and America: the ideology of decline (Jones) 5:29–33
  Westerns and property rights (Morriss) 3:19–22
  See also Davies; Edwards; Folsom; Higgs; Smith
ANDERSON, William L.
  A tale of regulation. 10:19–20
ANDERSON, William L. and Candice E. Jackson
  Losing the law: from shield to weapon. 5:20–23
ANDREWS, Lewis M.
  Separate the professions and the state. 12:16–20
ANTIGLOBALISTS are scarce in poor countries (Peron) 6:37–38
ARMENTANO, Paul. See Book reviews (Sullum)
ATTARIAN, John
  Is Social Security reform paternalistic? 1/2:10–12
AUSTRIAN economics
  Austrian economics and the political economy of freedom (Ebeling) 6:8–15
  Econ 101: an Austrian economist's dream (Foulkes) 1/2:8–9
AUTOGENIC diseases (Szasz) 5:24–25
AWESOME powers of government (Weidenbaum) 3:10–13
AYAU, Manuel F.
  The most elusive proposition. 10:25–27

B

BACK toward serfdom in New Zealand (Baird) 4:47–48
BAIRD, Charles W.
  Pursuit of happiness column:
  Back toward serfdom in New Zealand. 4:47–48
  Henry Hazlitt on unions. 11:47–48
  The public and the unions. 7/8:47–48
BARRY, Norman
  Estonia moves to liberty. 5:36–38
  The European constitution: a requiem? 10:32–36
BATEMARCO, Robert. See Book reviews (McMillan)
BERMUDA, freedom, and economic growth (Stewart) 6:18–21
BIERCE, Ambrose, on socialism (Hager) 12:21–23
"BIG" we really need to beware (Dunn) 7/8:23–24
BIOGRAPHY, tribute
  Ambrose Bierce on socialism (Hager) 12:21–23
  Aaron Director on the market for goods and ideas (Ebeling) 11:2–3
  Lasting legacy of the Reagan revolution (Ebeling) 7/8:6–7
  A man to remember (Davies) 12:29–30
  Nock revisited (Richman) 6:4–5
  Remembering Henry Hazlitt (Greaves) 11:8–11
  Herbert Spencer: libertarian prophet (Long) 7/8:25–28
BLANCHETTE, Jude
  Education is the effect, not the cause, of affluence. 7/8:31–34
  Hazlitt on gold. 11:34–36
BLOGS, new world of (Cowen) 3:16–18
BORDERS and liberty (Morriss) 7/8:17–20
BOUDREAUX
  Thoughts on freedom column:
  Can you spot the billionaire? 1/2:13–14
  A deficit of understanding. 4:16–17
  A deficit of understanding II. 6:16–17
  Novel economics. 11:13–14
  Playing by the rules. 9:16–17
BOVARD, James
  Federal surveillance: the threat to Americans' security 1/2:22–27
BUSINESS
  "Big" we really need to beware (Dunn) 7/8:23–24
  Would the poor go barefoot with a private shoe industry? (Davies) 5:34–35
BUSINESS and ethics (Opitz) 1/2:37–40
BUSYBODY behind every tree (Payne) 7/8:8–9
BUYING foreign goods saves American jobs (Carreira) 6:22–23

C

CALIFORNIA
  How unions are bankrupting California (Greenhut) 9:28–31
CALLAHAN, Gene
  Free-trade theory no longer applies? It just ain't so! 5:6–7
Callahan, Gene, continued
  See also Book reviews (Caldwell; Mandelbaum)
CALLAHAN, Gene and Robert (Bob) Murphy
  Let us not speak falsely now. 3:28–32
  Nationalized health care will cut costs? It just ain't so! 1/2:6–7
CAMPAIGN-finance reform
  Politics corrupts money (Leef) 1/2:32–34
CAN you spot the billionaire? (Boudreaux) 1/2:13–14
CAPITAL letters 3:39–41; 5:39–40; 9:40–41; 12:31–33
CARREIRA, Robert
  Buying foreign goods saves American jobs. 6:22–23
  Regulatory escalation. 1/2:15–16
CARTOON depicting "The Broken Window" 11:24–25
CASHING a cheque in the third millennium A.D. (Wright) 4:8–9
CHINA
  China's future (Dorn) 10:47–48
  Great Chinese inflation (Ebeling) 12:2–3
CHOICE is bad for us? It just ain't so! (Otteson) 6:6–7
CLASS-action lawsuits: dear lawyer (Payne) 10:40
CLASSICAL liberalism
  Ramón Díaz and the spread of liberal ideas in Uruguay (Peirano) 10:37–40
  Free markets, the rule of law, and classical liberalism (Ebeling) 5:8–15
  Progressive era's derailment of classical-liberal evolution (Smith) 6:26–30
CLEVELAND, Grover: the veto president (Folsom) 4:34–35
COBDEN, Richard: a man to remember (Davies) 12:29–30
COLLECTIVIST paradox (Richman) 3:4–5
COMMUNISM
  The lessons of another Tolstoy (Hager) 1/2:17–19
  Museum you don't want to miss (Reed) 3:14–15
COPYRIGHTS, Mises on (Greaves) 6:33–36
CORDATO, Roy E.
  Corporations should pay higher taxes? It just ain't so! 11:6–7
COWEN, Tyler
  The new world of blogs. 3:16–18

D

DARK secrets of rail trails (Teska) 12:11–13
DAVIES, Stephen
  Our economic past column:
  From Pennsylvania to Verdun: Friedrich List and the origins of World War I. 1/2:30–31
  The great horse-manure crisis of 1894. 9:32–33
  A man to remember. 12:29–30
  Would the poor go barefoot with a private shoe industry? 5:34–35
DEAR lawyer (Payne) 10:40

DECENCY requires a minimum-wage law? It just ain't so! (Skoble) 3:6–7
DEFENSE of our civilization against intellectual error (Hayek) 3:8–9
DEFICIT of understanding (Boudreaux) 4:6–17
DEFICIT of understanding II (Boudreaux) 6:16–17
DEFICITS do matter (Sennholz) 3:35–38
DEMOCRACY
Golden calf of democracy (Reed) 12:14–15
On "elective despotism" (Richman) 1/2:20–21
DEMOCRACY, freedom, and the market (Ebeling) 9:2–3
DESTRUCTIVE destruction (Richman) 12:4–5
DIAZ, Ramón, and the spread of liberal ideas in Uruguay (Peirano) 10:37–40
DIRECTOR, Aaron, on the market for goods and ideas (Ebeling) 11:2–3
DOHERTY, Brian. See Book reviews (Szasz)
DORN, James A.
China's future. 10:47–48
DUNN, Wayne
The "big" we really need to beware. 7/8:23–24

E

EBELING, Richard M.
From the president column:
Democracy, freedom, and the market. 9:2–3
Aaron Director on the market for goods and ideas. 11:2–3
Globalization and free trade. 4:2–3
The great Chinese inflation. 12:2–3
F. A. Hayek and The Road to Serfdom: a sixtieth-anniversary appreciation. 3:2–3
Neoconservatives and the freedom philosophy. 5:2–3
1914 and the world we lost. 6:2–3
There is no central plan for winning liberty. 1/2:2–3
What can friends of freedom learn from the socialists? 10:2–3
The WHO global treaty on tobacco: a smokescreen for more government control. 7/8:2–3
Feature articles:
Austrian economics and the political economy of freedom. 6:8–15
Free markets, the rule of law, and classical liberalism. 5:8–15
Henry Hazlitt and the failure of Keynesian economics. 11:15–19
Interest rates and the Federal Reserve. 9:14–15
The lasting legacy of the Reagan revolution. 7/8:6–7
Why socialism is "impossible." (Ebeling) 10:8–12
See also Book reviews (Applebaum; Catherwood; Constant; Haynes & Klehr; Himmelfarb; Hoover; Ryn; Seabright; Shenoy; Stossel)
ECON 101: an Austrian economist's dream (Foulkes) 1/2:8–9
ECONOMIC causes of war (Mises) 4:10–15
ECONOMIC fantasy of "Star Trek" (Goldsmith) 12:8–10
ECONOMIC history
To understand change, learn from history (J. Hood) 7/8:10–12
See also Davies, Folsom, Higgs
ECONOMICS, economists
Austrian economics and the political economy of freedom (Ebeling) 6:8–15
Destructive destruction (Richman) 12:4–5
Fortune-cookie economics (Foulkes) 6:39–40
Henry Hazlitt and the failure of Keynesian economics (Ebeling) 11:15–19
Most elusive proposition (Ayau) 10:25–27
Where in the world can you find economic freedom? (Leef) 9:34–36
Why are economists so misunderstood? (Roberts) 1/2:47–48
ECONOMICS in One Lesson: an appreciation (Henderson) 11:26–28
EDUCATION is the effect, not the cause, of affluence (Blanchette) 7/8:31–34
EDWARDS, James Rolph
How nineteenth-century Americans responded to government corruption. 4:24–28
ENDING farm subsidies wouldn't help the third world? It just ain't so! (Pasour) 4:6–7
ENERGY
How not to respond to higher gasoline prices (Laband & Westley) 10:23–24
We're running out of oil? It just ain't so! (Jennrich) 9:6–7
ENVIRONMENT
Great horse-manure crisis of 1894 (Davies) 9:32–33
Higher CO_2, more global warming, and less extinction? (Lingle) 9:18–19
The irrational precautionary principle (Peron) 4:38–40
Progressive era's derailment of classical-liberal evolution (Smith) 6:26–30
ESTONIA moves to liberty (Barry) 5:36–38
ETHICS
Business and ethics (Opitz) 1/2:37–40
EUROPEAN constitution: a requiem? 10:32–36

F

FACTS about world hunger (Peron) 9:37–39
FDA
New drug war (Summers) 4:31–33
FEDERAL surveillance: the threat to Americans' security (Bovard) 1/2:22–27
FEDERALISM means carte blanche for states? It just ain't so! (Leef) 10:6–7
FILM
Westerns and property rights (Morriss) 3:19–22
FLIGHT from responsibility (Richman) 9:22–23
FOLSOM, Burton, Jr.
Our economic past column:
Grover Cleveland: the veto president. 4:34–35
Why did the National Road fail? 7/8:29–30
See also Book reviews (Powell)
FORTUNE-cookie economics (Foulkes) 6:39–40
FOULKES, Arthur E.
Econ 101: an Austrian economist's dream. 1/2:8–9
Fortune-cookie economics. 6:39–40
Free trade's never-ending battle. 9:20–21
FREE markets blossom in Vietnam (Reed) 7/8:13–14
FREE markets, the rule of law, and classical liberalism (Ebeling) 5:8–15
FREE trade. See also Trade
FREE trade: key to peace and prosperity (Peterson) 1/2:35–36
FREE trade's never-ending battle (Foulkes) 9:20–21
FREE-trade theory no longer applies? It just ain't so! (Callahan) 5:6–7
FREEDOM of conscience and the welfare state (Richman) 6:24–25
FREEDOM philosophy
Neoconservatives and the freedom philosophy (Ebeling) 5:2–3
There is no central plan for winning liberty (Ebeling) 1/2:2–3
What can friends of freedom learn from the socialists? 10:2–3
Why not more liberty? (Roberts) 12:40–41
FROM Pennsylvania to Verdun: Friedrich List and the origins of World War I (Davies) 1/2:30–31
FROM wartime expedient to permanent pork barrel: WFC to RFC to SBA (Higgs) 10:30–31
FULDA, Joseph S.
The wisher and the legislator: a lesson from a fairy tale. 5:18–19

G

GALLES, Gary. See Book reviews (Rajan & Zingales)
GINI co-efficient
Can you spot the billionaire? (Boudreaux) 1/2:13–14
GLOBALIZATION and free trade (Ebeling) 4:2–3
GOLDEN calf of democracy (Reed) 12:14–15
GOLDSMITH, P. Gardner
The economic fantasy of "Star Trek." 12:8–10
Twisting economics against immigrants. 9:24–27
GOVERNMENT control of medicine: thanks, but no thanks (R. Hood) 4:29–30

GOVERNMENT should regulate charities? It just ain't so! (Richman) 12:6–7
GOVERNMENT debt, government spending
Deficits do matter (Sennholz) 3:35–38
How did we get here? (Williams) 3:47–48
GOVERNMENT, growth and power of
Awesome powers of government (Weidenbaum) 3:10–13
"Big" we really need to beware (Dunn) 7/8:23–24
From wartime expedient to permanent pork barrel: WFC to RFC to SBA (Higgs) 10:30–31
How nineteenth-century Americans responded to government corruption (Edwards) 4:24–28
Let us not speak falsely now (Callahan & Murphy) 3:28–32
No more czars, please (Reed) 10:13–14
Playing by the rules (Boudreaux) 9:16–17
GOVERNMENT regulation
Busybody behind every tree (Payne) 7/8:8–9
Payday-loan controversy (Hisrich) 10:28–29
Regulatory escalation (Carreira) 1/2:15–16
Separate the professions and the state (Andrews) 12:16–20
Tale of regulation (Anderson) 10:19–20
Telecom regulations don't create competitive markets (Reed) 5:16–17
Whose airwaves are they? (Richman) 7/8:4–5
GOVERNMENT subsidies
Ending farm subsidies wouldn't help the third world? It just ain't so! (Pasour) 4:6–7
Tax breaks aren't subsidies (Richman) 4:4–5
GREAT Chinese inflation (Ebeling) 12:2–3
GREAT horse-manure crisis of 1894 (Davis) 9:32–33
GREATEST privatization ever (Higgs) 6:31–32
GREAVES, Bettina Bien
Mises on copyrights. 6:33–36
Remembering Henry Hazlitt. 11:8–11
GREENHUT, Steven
How unions are bankrupting California. 9:28–31
GREER, Stanley. See Book reviews (Lichtenstein)

H

HAGER, Daniel
Ambrose Bierce on socialism. 12:21–23
The lessons of another Tolstoy. 1/2:17–19
HAS a new era of space venture arrived? (Keating) 10:15–18
HAVE a Canadian orange (Roberts) 5:47–48
HAYEK and The Road to Serfdom: a sixtieth-anniversary appreciation (Ebeling) 3:2–3
HAYEK, F. A.
The defense of our civilization against intellectual error. 3:8–9
HAYWOOD, Dale
The most insidious tax. 7/8:15–16
HAZLITT, Henry
All poorer after the war. 11:12
Inflation in one page. 11:41
The legacy of Marx. 11:29–33
The Mont Pelerin Society. 11:37–38
Private enterprise regained. 11:20–21
HAZLITT, Henry: articles commemorating 110th anniversary of birth
Economics in One Lesson: an appreciation (Henderson) 11:26–28
Hazlitt as a thinker (Richman) 11:22–23
Hazlitt on gold (Blanchette) 11:34–36
Hazlitt's The Foundations of Morality (Yeager) 11:39–40
Henry Hazlitt and the failure of Keynesian economics (Ebeling) 11:15–19
Henry Hazlitt on unions (Baird) 11:47–48
More things change . . . (Richman) 11:4–5
Remembering Henry Hazlitt (Greaves) 11:8–11
Novel economics (Boudreaux) 11:13–14
HEALY, Gene. See Book reviews (Zakaria)
HENDERSON, David R.
Economics in One Lesson: an appreciation. 11:26–28
HIGGS, Robert
Our economic past column:
From wartime expedient to permanent pork barrel: WFC to RFC to SBA. 10:30–31
The greatest privatization ever. 6:31–32
Truman's attempt to seize the steel industry. 3:33–34
HIGHER CO_2, more global warming, and less extinction? (Lingle) 9:18–19
HISRICH, Matthew
The payday-loan controversy. 10:28–29
HOOD, John
To understand change, learn from history. 7/8:10–12
HOOD, Ralph
Government control of medicine: thanks, but no thanks. 4:29–30
HORSE-manure crisis of 1894 (Davis) 9:32–33
"HOUSE of aces" (Szasz) 7/8:21–22
HOW did we get here? (Williams) 3:47–48
HOW nineteenth-century Americans responded to government corruption (Edwards) 4:24–28
HOW not to respond to higher gasoline prices (Laband & Westley) 10:23–24
HOW unions are bankrupting California (Greenhut) 9:28–31

I

IDEAS
Defense of our civilization against intellectual error (Hayek) 3:8–9
From Pennsylvania to Verdun: Friedrich List and the origins of World War I (Davies) 1/2:30–31
Neoconservatives and the freedom philosophy (Ebeling) 5:2–3
New world of blogs (Cowen) 3:16–18
What can friends of freedom learn from the socialists? (Ebeling) 10:2–3
IDEAS and consequences column. See Reed
IMMIGRATION
Twisting economics against immigrants (Goldsmith) 9:24–27
INEQUALITY of income
Can you spot the billionaire? (Boudreaux) 1/2:13–14
INTEREST rates and the Federal Reserve (Ebeling) 9:14–15
INTERNET
New world of blogs (Cowen) 3:16–18
IRISH miracle (Sigfrid) 4:36–37
IRRATIONAL precautionary principle (Peron) 4:38–40
IS neuroscience blind? (Richman) 9:4–5
IS Social Security reform paternalistic? (Attarian) 1/2:10–12
IT just ain't so! (column)
Choice is bad for us? (Otteson) 6:6–7
Corporations should pay higher taxes? (Cordato) 11:6–7
Decency requires a minimum-wage law? (Skoble) 3:6–7
Ending farm subsidies wouldn't help the third world? (Pasour) 4:6–7
Federalism means carte blanche for states? (Leef) 10:6–7
Free-trade theory no longer applies? (Callahan) 5:6–7
Government should regulate charities? (Richman) 12:6–7
Nationalized health care will cut costs? (Callahan & Murphy) 1/2:6–7
We're running out of oil? (Jennrich) 9:6–7

J

JACKSON, Candice E. (co-author). See Anderson
JENNRICH, John
We're running out of oil? It just ain't so! 9:6–7
JONES, Harold B., Jr.
Rome and America: the ideology of decline. 5:29–33

K

KAZMAN, Sam. See Book reviews (Hilts)
KEATING, Raymond J.
Has a new era of space venture arrived? 10:15–18

L

LABAND, David and Christopher Westley
How not to respond to higher gasoline prices. 10:23–24
LABOR, labor unions
Back toward serfdom in New Zealand (Baird) 4:47–48
Decency requires a minimum-wage law? It just ain't so! (Skoble) 3:6–7
Henry Hazlitt on unions (Baird) 11:47–48
How unions are bankrupting California (Greenhut) 9:28–31
Public and the unions (Baird) 7/8:47–48
LAND use
Dark secrets of rail trails (Teska) 12:11–13
Greatest privatization ever (Higgs) 6:31–32
LANGUAGE
Let us not speak falsely now (Callahan & Murphy) 3:28–32
No more czars, please (Reed) 10:13–14
LASTING legacy of the Reagan revolution (Ebeling) 7/8:6–7
LATIN America
Democracy, freedom, and the market (Ebeling) 9:2–3
See also Peirano
LAW, legislation
Losing the law: from shield to weapon (Anderson & Jackson) 5:20–23
Wisher and the legislator: a lesson from a fairy tale (Fulda) 5:18–19
LEEF, George
Federalism means carte blanche for states? It just ain't so! 10:6–7
Politics corrupts money. 1/2:32–34
Where in the world can you find economic freedom? 9:34–36
See also Book reviews (Bernstein; Brimelow; Chua; Stern; Olson; Yecke)
LEGACY of Marx (Hazlitt) 11:29–33
LESSER of two evils (Read) 9:8–13
LESSONS of another Tolstoy (Hager) 1/2:17–19
LET us not speak falsely now (Callahan & Murphy) 3:28–32
LINGLE, Christopher
Higher CO_2, more global warming, and less extinction? 9:18–19
LIST, Friedrich, ideas of: From Pennsylvania to Verdun (Davies) 1/2:30–31
LITTMANN, David L. See Book reviews (Barro)
LONG, Roderick T.
Herbert Spencer: libertarian prophet. 7/8:25–28
LOSING the law: from shield to weapon (Anderson & Jackson) 5:20–23

M

MACHAN, Tibor R.
Property and prosperity: the vital link. 1/2:28–29
See also Book reviews (Younkins)
MADDEN, Russell
Watering the tree. 3:25–27
MAN to remember (Davies) 12:29–30
MARX, Karl, legacy of (Hazlitt) 11:29–33
MATHESON, Victor A. See Book reviews (Bhagwati)
MAYER, Christopher. See Book reviews (Meltzer)
MEDICINE, health care
Government control of medicine: thanks, but no thanks (R. Hood) 4:29–30
"House of aces" (Szasz) 7/8:21–22
Is neuroscience blind? (Richman) 9:4–5
Nationalized health care will cut costs? It just ain't so! (Callahan & Murphy) 1/2:6–7
New drug war (Summers) 4:31–33
On autogenic diseases (Szasz) 5:24–25
Primum nocere (Szasz) 12:24–25
Psychiatric "services" (Szasz) 10:21–22
Self-ownership or suicide prevention? (Szasz) 3:23–24
MIRON, Jeffrey. See Book reviews (Jacobs)
MISES on copyrights (Greaves) 6:33–36
MISES, Ludwig von
The economic causes of war. 4:10–15
MONEY
Cashing a cheque in the third millennium A.D. (Wright) 4:8–9
Economic fantasy of "Star Trek" (Goldsmith) 12:8–10
Great Chinese inflation (Ebeling) 12:2–3
Hazlitt on gold (Blanchette) 11:34–36
Interest rates and the Federal Reserve (Ebeling) 9:14–15
MORE things change . . . (Richman) 11:4–5
MORRISS, Andrew P.
Borders and liberty. 7/8:17–20
Westerns and property rights. 3:19–22
MOST elusive proposition (Ayau) 10:25–27
MOST insidious tax (Haywood) 7/8:15–16
MURPHY, Robert P.
What's wrong with the poverty numbers. 4:18–21
MURPHY, Robert P. (co-author). See Callahan
MURRAY, Phil. See Book reviews (Irwin)
MUSEUM you don't want to miss (Reed) 3:14–15
MYTH of wartime prosperity (Woods) 12:26–28

N

NATIONALIZED health care will cut costs? It just ain't so! (Callahan & Murphy) 1/2:6–7
NEOCONSERVATIVES and the freedom philosophy (Ebeling) 5:2–3
NEW drug war (Summers) 4:31–33
NEW world of blogs (Cowen) 3:16–18
NEW Zealand, back toward labor serfdom in (Baird) 4:47–48
NINETEEN-fourteen and the world we lost (Ebeling) 6:2–3
NO more czars, please (Reed) 10:13–14
NOCK revisited (Richman) 6:4–5
NOVEL economics (Boudreaux) 11:13–14

O

ON "elective despotism" (Richman) 1/2:20–21
OPITZ, Edmund A.
Business and ethics. 1/2:37–40
OTTESON, James
Choice is bad for us? It just ain't so! 6:6–7
Educational impudence. 3:27
OUR economic past (column). See Davies; Folsom; Higgs

P

PARTING company is an option (Williams) 6:47–48
PASOUR, E.C., Jr.
Ending farm subsidies wouldn't help the third world? It just ain't so! 4:6–7
See also Book reviews (Callahan)
PAYDAY-loan controversy (Hisrich) 10:28–29
PAYNE, James L.
Anti-taxation. 1/2:29
A busybody behind every tree. 7/8:8–9
Dear lawyer. 10:40
Scotland: the bitter taste of independence. 5:26–28
PEIRANO, Luisa
Ramón Díaz and the spread of liberal ideas in Uruguay. 10:37–40
PERIPATETICS column. See Richman
PERON, Jim
Antiglobalists are scarce in poor countries. 6:37–38
The facts about world hunger. 9:37–39
The irrational precautionary principle. 4:38–40
PETERSON, William H.
Free trade: key to peace and prosperity. 1/2:35–36
PHILANTHROPY
Government should regulate charities? It just ain't so! (Richman) 12:6–7
PILGRIMS
Private enterprise regained (Hazlitt) 11:20–21
PLAYING by the rules (Boudreaux) 9:16–17
POLITICS corrupts money (Leef) 1/2:32–34
POVERTY
What's wrong with the poverty numbers (Murphy) 4:18–21
PRICES, pricing
How not to respond to higher gasoline prices (Laband & Westley) 10:23–24
PRIMUM nocere (Szasz)12:24–25
PRIVATE enterprise regained (Hazlitt) 11:20–21

PRIVATE property
Dark secrets of rail trails (Teska) 12:11–13
Property and prosperity: the vital link (Machan) 1/2:28–29
Taking liberties . . . and properties (Richman) 1/2:4–5
Westerns and property rights (Morriss) 3:19–22
PROGRESSIVE era's derailment of classical-liberal evolution (Smith) 6:26–30
PROPERTY and prosperity: the vital link (Machan) 1/2:28–29
PROTECTIONISM. See Trade
PSYCHIATRIC "services" (Szasz) 10:21–22
PUBLIC and the unions (Baird) 7/8:47–48
PURSUIT of happiness column. See Baird; Roberts; Williams

R

READ, Leonard E.
The lesser of two evils. 9:8–13
READ, Leonard E., ideas of
Defense of our civilization against intellectual error (Hayek) 3:8–9
Flight from responsibility (Richman) 9:22–23
There is no central plan for winning liberty (Ebeling) 1/2:2–3
REAGAN, Ronald
Lasting legacy of the Reagan revolution (Ebeling) 7/8:6–7
REED, Lawrence W.
Ideas and consequences column:
Free markets blossom in Vietnam. 7/8:13–14
The golden calf of democracy. 12:14–15
A museum you don't want to miss. 3:14–15
No more czars, please. 10:13–14
Telecom regulations don't create competitive markets. 5:16–17
REGULATORY escalation (Carreira) 1/2:15–16
RELIGION, churches
Freedom of conscience and the welfare state (Richman) 6:24–25
Tale of regulation (Anderson) 10:19–20
REMEMBERING Henry Hazlitt (Greaves) 11:8–11
RESPONSIBILITY, flight from (Richman) 9:22–23
RICHMAN, Sheldon
Peripatetics column:
Flight from responsibility. 9:22–23
Freedom of conscience and the welfare state. 6:24–25
Hazlitt as a thinker. 11:22–23
On "elective despotism." 1/2:20–21
There's still work to do. 4:22–23
Perspective:
The collectivist paradox. 3:4–5
Destructive destruction. 12:4–5
Is neuroscience blind? 9:4–5
The more things change . . . 11:4–5
Nock revisited. 6:4–5
Science versus science. 10:4–5
The season of protectionism. 5:4–5
Richman, Sheldon, continued
Taking liberties . . . and properties. 1/2:4–5
Tax breaks aren't subsidies. 4:4–5
Whose airwaves are they? 7/8:4–5
It just ain't so!:
Government should regulate charities? 12:6–7
See also Book reviews (Payne)
ROBERTS, Russell
Pursuit of happiness column:
Have a Canadian orange. 5:47–48
Traitor or trader? 9:47–48
Why are economists so misunderstood? 1/2:47–48
Why not more liberty? 12:40–41
ROME and America: the ideology of decline (Jones) 5:29–33
RUSSELL, Dean
Tariffs are legal plunder. 7/8:35–39

S

SCIENCE versus science (Richman) 10:4–5
SCOTLAND: the bitter taste of independence (Payne) 5:26–28
SEASON of protectionism (Richman) 5:4–5
SECURITY
Federal surveillance: the threat to Americans' security (Bovard) 1/2:22–27
SELF-OWNERSHIP or suicide prevention? (Szasz) 3:23–24
SELF-RELIANCE
Watering the tree (Madden) 3:25–27
SENNHOLZ, Hans F.
Deficits do matter. 3:35–38
SEPARATE the professions and the state (Andrews) 12:16–20
SHAW, Jane S. See Book reviews (Hollander)
SIGFRID, Karl
The Irish miracle. 4:36–37
SKOBLE, Aeon J.
Decency requires a minimum-wage law? It just ain't so! 3:6–7
SMITH, Fred L., Jr.
The Progressive Era's derailment of classical-liberal evolution. 6:26–30
SOCIAL Security
Is Social Security reform paternalistic? (Attarian) 1/2:10–12
SOCIALISM
Ambrose Bierce on socialism (Hager) 12:21–23
Why socialism is "impossible" (Ebeling) 10:8–12
SOVIET Union. See Communism
SPACE exploration
Has a new era of space venture arrived? (Keating) 10:15–18
SPENCER, Herbert: libertarian prophet (Long) 7/8:25–28
"STAR Trek," economic fantasy of (Goldsmith) 12:8–10
STATES' rights
Federalism means carte blanche for states? It just ain't so! (Leef) 10:6–7
Parting company is an option (Williams) 6:47–48
STEWART, Robert
Bermuda, freedom, and economic growth. 6:18–21
SUMMERS, Adam B.
The new drug war. 4:31–33
SZASZ, Thomas
The therapeutic state column:
"A house of aces." 7/8:21–22
On autogenic diseases. 5:24–25
Primum nocere. 12:24–25
Psychiatric "services." 10:21–22
Self-ownership or suicide prevention? 3:23–24

T

TAKING liberties . . . and properties (Richman) 1/2:4–5
TALE of regulation (Anderson) 10:19–20
TARIFFS are legal plunder (Russell) 7/8:35–39
TAX breaks aren't subsidies (Richman) 4:4–5
TAXES, taxation
Bermuda, freedom, and economic growth (Stewart) 6:18–21
Corporations should pay higher taxes? It just ain't so! (Cordato) 11:6–7
Most insidious tax (Haywood) 7/8:15–16
Tariffs are legal plunder (Russell) 7/8:35–39
TELECOM regulations don't create competitive markets (Reed) 5:16–17
TERRORISM, War on
Federal surveillance: the threat to Americans' security (Bovard) 1/2:22–27
TESKA, Kirk
The dark secrets of rail trails. 12:11–13
THANKSGIVING
Private enterprise regained (Hazlitt) 11:20–21
THERAPEUTIC state column. See Szasz
THERE is no central plan for winning liberty (Ebeling) 1/2:2–3
THERE'S still work to do (Richman) 4:22–23
THOUGHTS on freedom column. See Boudreaux
TO understand change, learn from history (J. Hood) 7/8:10–12
TOBACCO
WHO global treaty on: a smokescreen for more government control (Ebeling) 7/8:2–3
TRADE
Antiglobalists are scarce in poor countries (Peron) 6:37–38
Buying foreign goods saves American jobs (Carreira) 6:22–23
Deficit of understanding (Boudreaux) 4:16–17
Deficit of understanding II (Boudreaux) 6:16–17
Free trade: key to peace and prosperity (Peterson) 1/2:35–36
Free trade's never-ending battle (Foulkes) 9:20–21

Trade, continued
Free-trade theory no longer applies? It just ain't so! (Callahan) 5:6–7
Globalization and free trade (Ebeling) 4:2–3
Have a Canadian orange (Roberts) 5:47–48
Season of protectionism (Richman) 5:4–5
Tariffs are legal plunder (Russell) 7/8:35–39
There's still work to do (Richman) 4:22–23
Traitor or trader? (Roberts) 9:47–48
TRAITOR or trader? (Roberts) 9:47–48
TRUMAN'S attempt to seize the steel industry (Davies) 3:33–34
TWISTING economics against immigrants (Goldsmith) 9:24–27

U–V

UNITED Nations
Facts about world hunger (Peron) 9:37–39
Irrational precautionary principle (Peron) 4:38–40
URUGUAY
Ramón Díaz and the spread of liberal ideas in Uruguay (Peirano) 10:37–40
VIETNAM
Free markets blossom in Vietnam 7/8:13–14
VOTING
Lesser of two evils (Read) 9:8–13

W–Z

WAR
All poorer after the war (Hazlitt) 11:12
Economic causes of war (Mises) 4:10–15
From Pennsylvania to Verdun: Friedrich List and the origins of World War I (Davies) 1/2:30–31
From wartime expedient to permanent pork barrel: (Higgs) 10:30–31
Myth of wartime prosperity (Woods) 12:26–28
1914 and the world we lost (Ebeling) 6:2–3
WATERING the tree (Madden) 3:25–27
WE'RE running out of oil? It just ain't so! (Jennrich) 9:6–7
WEALTH
Education is the effect, not the cause, of affluence (Blanchette) 7/8:31–34
WEIDENBAUM, Murray
The awesome powers of government. 3:10–13
WELCH, Tom. See Book reviews (Twitchell)
WESTERNS and property rights (Morriss) 3:19–22
WESTLEY, Christopher (co–author). See Laband
WHAT can friends of freedom learn from the socialists? (Ebeling) 10:2–3
WHAT'S wrong with the poverty numbers (Murphy) 4:18–21
WHERE in the world can you find economic freedom? (Leef) 9:34–36
WHO global treaty on tobacco (Ebeling) 7/8:2–3
WHOSE airwaves are they? (Richman) 7/8:4–5
WHY are economists so misunderstood? (Roberts) 1/2:47–48
WHY did the National Road fail? (Folsom) 7/8:29–30
WHY not more liberty? (Roberts) 12:40–41
WHY socialism is "impossible" (Ebeling) 10:8–12
WILLIAMS, Walter E.
Pursuit of happiness column:
How did we get here? 3:47–48
Parting company is an option. 6:47–48
WISHER and the legislator: a lesson from a fairy tale (Fulda) 5:18–19
WOOD, Peter W. See Book reviews (Schuck)
WOODS, Thomas E., Jr.
The myth of wartime prosperity. 12:26–28
WOOSTER, Martin Morse. See Book reviews (Ravitch)
WORLD War I. See War
WOULD the poor go barefoot with a private shoe industry? (Davies) 5:34–35
WRIGHT, Robert E.
Cashing a cheque in the third millennium A.D. 4:8–9
YEAGER, Leland B.
Hazlitt's The Foundations of Morality. 11:39–40